Meet the Roll Play Characters

The Businessman

At first the businessman is very uptight and not very friendly to others. He is very serious and preoccupied with his work. He is annoyed and irritated by the other characters. During the show, the businessman loses his job and becomes upset and lost. The other characters support him to find his new path and he learns to accept support from the others and makes new friends.

The Workman

He is laidback, friendly and thinks he is a little cool. He gets along well with everyone and always offers to share his crisps. He enjoys making people smile by showing dance moves and making people laugh. He gets along well with the other characters and makes friends easily.

The Sporty Guy

He may seem unfriendly at first, but he is a very warm and optimistic person. He doesn't have a job, so he spends his time juggling on the streets and having conversations with people he meets.
